EXISTE EN : NEGRO, BLANCO

DESCRIPCIÓN :

Curve is an elegant, flowing aluminum stand that complements the design of your MacBook. With its beautiful matte black finish and improved ergonomic design, it is the ultimate partnership of style and functionality. Use your MacBook on Curve to create a more comfortable desktop with your favorite external keyboard & mouse, or use the combo with an external display to create the perfect dual-screen setup. When it's time to go mobile, unplug and roll out leaving a modern sculpture behind.

Parking your MacBook on a desktop stand isn't just about elevating it to a better viewing height, it's about performance. Allow your MacBook to breathe while it pulls the heavy load, while also having the ability to use a full set up. Add in an external monitor and you have an ergonomic command center to get stuff done – editing a Kickstarter video, building a Keynote show or running your freelance business. For long stretches on your MacBook, Curve helps you get it comfortably done.

PUNTOS FUERTES :

- Modern, minimal design complements & enhances your MacBook and workspace
- Elevates screen 6.5-inches and keeps 70% of the base exposed for optimal cooling
- Allows access to your MacBook screen lift for one-handed opening
